interesting News by the Atlantic Cable LONDON, July 22.-The Times, alland, says: "Centuries of misrule have planted perverse views in the Irish peasant's breasts, which must disappear under the enlightened legislation of the present Parliament and for this reason we trust in such measures of justice as the Irish Church bill, which should not be left unsettled a moment longer than can be avoided, and until it is settled there is little hope of tranquility in Ireland, and the gravest results are to be apprehended Heavy Indeed is the responsibility of those who have power to secure the measure from delay."

The Times says the ministry is resolved to preserve the Irish Church bill, in spite of the majority against it in the House of Lords, and that the conclusion is that the differences between the Houses in respect to the preamble and the sixty-eighth clause, do not offer insuperable obstacles to the passage of the bill.

Condensed Decisions, Reported for the Memphis Appeal by H. Clay King, Esq. No. 51. Mary Ann Schoonover vs.

From the Chancery Court of Mem-Facts: In 1861, Geo. W. Lincoln richased a lot in Memphis from one Rogers, paying Rogers with his own money, but making the title in fre-simple to defendant Love. Lincoln took and retained possession, made improvements, and claimed to be the owner, renting it and exercising other acts of ownership. In 1862, Lincoln sold part of the lot and conveyed it in ——There has been no session of the tee simple to Joseph Schoonover, who paid for it $25,060 in Confederate mon

The separate answer of Lincoln and Love aver that Love holds the title for the use and benefit of Mrs. Mary C. Lincoln, wife of G. W. Lincoln. There is no direct proof as to the creation of this trust. Mrs. Lincoln is not made a party to the suit. In 1865, Mrs. Lincoln filed her bill against Joseph Schoonover and

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

There has been no session flows Legislature since April, 1868; consequently the fifteenth amendment has not been adopted as reported. The press generally reprobates th attempt of the Government to inter-tere with the landing of the French cable. The New York Herald says the United States Attorney-General stretches his authority when he uses his official position to give an opinion that should not be considered an opinion, in favor of a gigantic telegraphi monopoly, and that Secretary Fish when he presumptuously attempts to interfere with the laying of submarine and that decree has not been appealed from. At the time of Schoonover's purchase, the books of the Register's office of Shelby county, in which the deed to Love was registered, had been removed in consequence of the war, and were not accessible. The bill alleges that Joseph Schoonover bought without knowledge that the legal title to the lot was in Love, and upon the positive assertion of G. W. Lincoln that the absolute title was in him, G. W. Lincoln, who answers without out, and states in his answer that he told Schoonover at the time of his tenant, setting up a claim to the his tenant, setting up a claim to the latent to the lot was in Love, and upon the positive assertion of G. that the absolute title was in him, G. My Lincoln, who answers without oath, and states in his answer that he told Schoonover at the time of his purchase that the legal title was in Love, who held it for the benefit of Mrs. Lincoln, and the same fact is charged on information and belief in Love's answer; but there is no evidence that Schoonover had such notice, and I think from the circumstice, and I think from the circumstances that he had not. The answers of G. W. Lincoln and Love allege that the Confederate money paid by Schoonover for the land was counterfeit, and infat that the sale was void for this registor, as well as by reason of the illegality of the currency, even if it had been genuline. Bill prays that the complainant may be decread to be entifled to the equilable title to said lot, by virtue of Joseph Schoonover's purchase, and that the legal title may be divested out of Love and vested in exercises by practised speakers.

A dispatch from Wilmington, N. C., of the 17th says: A horrible affair has just been disclosed in Rutherford, whether Mrs. Lincoln had in fact any equitable interest in the property apparent from the facts on the record. When G. W. Lincoln paid for the land and took the legal title in the name of Love, a trust resulted to G. W. Lincoln, unless the conveyance was actually made by Rogers at the time in trust for Mrs. Lincoln. If the trust at the outset resulted to G. W. Lincoln, a trust could not thereafter be created for Mrs. Lincoln, if the trust at the outset resulted to G. W. Lincoln, a trust could not thereafter be created for Mrs. Lincoln, or that G.W. Lincoln without a declaration of such trust by G. W. Lincoln, or that G.W. Lincoln afterwards declared such a trust.
